

Contract Bridge Association of Ireland

Camrose Trophy 2023

The Camrose Trophy is the home international competition in which open teams from England, Northern Ireland, Republic of Ireland, Scotland and Wales compete against each other annually. The dates and venues for these events in the coming season are:

Weekend 1:	Date: 6th to 8th January 2023	Northern Ireland
Weekend 2:	Date: 3rd to 5th March 2023	In Ireland unless Online

As hosts of the final weekend, the C.B.A.I. International Committee (I.C.) will hold trials on the 29-31st October 2022 (and thereafter on the Saturday to Monday of October Bank holiday) to select teams to represent both the Republic of Ireland and the C.B.A.I. in the Camrose Trophy. The venue is the Bridge Centre in Templeogue unless online.

The winning team will be selected automatically to represent the Republic of Ireland. The runner-up will be selected automatically to represent the C.B.A.I. If either team is a team of four, then the I.C. will, in consultation with the team's members, select an additional pair, in order to make up a team of six. The additional pair must have played in the trials. If either team is a team of five, then the I.C. will, if the team requests it, consider selecting an additional player, in order to make up a team of six. The additional player must have played in the trials and be a regular partner of at least one of that team.

Rules/Regulations re Substitutes and Systems for Camrose Trials

Substitutes

Subject to the approval of the International Committee (I.C.), a substitute may be allowed in emergency circumstances for a limited number of boards. A substitution, which in the opinion of the I.C. significantly affects the strength/weakness of a pair, is unlikely to be approved.

If a suitable substitute cannot be found for a match, the Tournament Director will award an adjusted score to the non-offending side in accordance with the E.B.U. White Book.

Requests for substitutes for what the I.C. considers to be convenience reasons will not be approved. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the T.D. is empowered to make emergency substitutions.

Systems

All players participating in these trials must have submitted a copy of their system in electronic format to CBAI National Headquarters (info@cbai.ie) with their entry, so that their system may be uploaded to www.cbai.ie and is available to their opponents.

Both members of a partnership are restricted to a single system and both must play the same system and methods in bidding and play.

Players may have a copy of their own system to hand during the event but may not refer to it during play, unless playing online.

The W.B.F. Convention Card or equivalent must be used and may be downloaded at website below:-

<http://www.ecatsbridge.com/documents/wbfinfo/systemsinfo/conventioncards.asp>

Hard copies of the W.B.F. Convention Card are available from the C.B.A.I. National Headquarters.

Failure to fulfil this obligation or presentation of a Convention Card that, in the opinion of the Tournament Director, is insufficiently detailed, will render each pair liable to an automatic penalty.

Highly Unusual Methods (HUMs) are permitted, subject to full disclosure, in the Camrose trials.

Players proposing to play HUMs must submit copies of these methods to C.B.A.I. National Headquarters when entering the Camrose trials. Players may have written defences to HUMs at the table as an aide memoire.

Brown Sticker Conventions (BSC) are permitted in the Camrose trials, subject to full disclosure. Up to three BSC may be used by a partnership, details of which must be submitted on the appropriate form (available from C.B.A.I. National Headquarters) when entering the respective trials. Failure to submit same in electronic format with the entry will result in these Methods and/or Conventions being prohibited.

General

The International Committee is empowered to alter any of the arrangements or conditions including time, dates and venue, and to decide on all matters affecting these trials.

The CBAI will follow any guidance in the EBU White Book in cases not covered by our own regulations.

Each player who enters these trials is agreeing to represent the Republic of Ireland or the C.B.A.I. if nominated and to abide fully with all the conditions of these trials.
